Nat Lancaster Dies at 83

Prominent Ashlander Suffers Heart Attack

ASHLAND, Aug. 23.—Nat Lancaster, 83, prominent Ashland citizen and churchman and member of an old Virginia family, died suddenly at his home early today. Mr. Lancaster was working in his garden when he suffered a heart attack.

He had been postmaster for seven years during President Wilson's administration, and for many years had been a merchant here.

Born July 31, 1856, in Cumberland County, Mr. Lancaster was the son of John A. and Fannie Venable Leach Lancaster. At the age of 17, he was made a deacon and at 21, he was installed as an elder of Center Church, Cumberland County. Later he served in that capacity in Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, one of those in Samuel Davies' group in Hanover County.

When he moved to Ashland, in 1887, he was made elder of the Presbyterian Church here. For fifty years he had served as superintendent of the Sunday school at the Ashland church and at the time of his death was clerk of the session.

Surviving are nine children: Douglas Lancaster, of Richmond; Norris L. Lancaster, of Augusta, Ga.; the Rev. Richard V. Lancaster, Presbyterian pastor at Fredericksburg; William Lancaster, of Alexandria; Nat Lancaster, Jr., American consul at Laurenco-Marques, Portuguese East Africa; James Lancaster, of Ashland; Mrs. Decatur M. Rogers, of Martinsburg, W. Va.; Miss Natalie Lancaster, dean of the Presbyterian Assembly's training school in Richmond, and Mrs. Edward P. Taylor, of Ashland.

Funeral services will be announced later.
